QUALIFYING

17. Bowlers will bowl 2 qualifying blocks made up of 5 games each. Each block will take place at a different center and on a different pattern.
18. After the 2nd block the field will be cut to the top 72 men and 25 women, based on the scores of the first two blocks. The remaining bowlers will bowl a 3rd 5 game block at a third center on a third pattern. Scores from the first two blocks will carry over.
19. After the 3rd block the field will be cut to the top 12 men and 6 women for the finals. The cut will be determined using the first 3 blocks (15 games) total. If the tournament director feels the need, the cut to the finals may be expanded. This will be announced before the start of the 3rd block.
20. Bowlers will move pairs after each game.
21. After each game the updated cut lines will be posted. (men 12th and 72nd place, women 6th and 25th place). The standings will be posted by the tournament office and will scroll on the scoring monitors if possible.

THE FINALS

22. Scores from the 3 qualifying blocks (15 games) will carry over to the finals and determine the first round of match-play.
23. Bowlers will compete in a round robin match play. Each bowler will bowl each of the remaining competitors at least once.
24. The winner of each match receives 30 bonus pins added to their scratch score, in the case of a tie both bowlers receive 15 pins. Loser receive no bonus pins, just their scratch score.
25. The 12 male finalist will bowl 12 games of match play with 1 game being position round.
26. The 6 female finalist will bowl 6 games of match play with 1 game being position round and will begin competition alongside the males after the males complete their 6th game.
27. After the games of match play are complete the bowlers with the most pin fall total after the 27 games for the men and 21 games for the women plus bonus pins will be the champions.
28. In the case of any ties for 1st place after match play is complete a one game roll off between all tied bowlers will be held to determine a champion. The bowler with the high score will win and no bonus pins will be added.
